Vera Holds Talent Contest

Vera Elementary School held a talent contest Halloween Night. Winners are shown above Kathy Ferguson wore the "ugliest" costume. Paul Gunter was the shoeshine boy shown at his bench in front of Brenda Gunter who sang "Chatanooga Shoe Shine" to win first in the talent show. Emmett Harris is shown as the customer along with Linda O'Brien who placed third with a pantomine. Donald Kanipe, far right, placed second with his monologue, "Romeo and Juliet.

Tour Of Europe Includes Three Weeks "Digging Ditches"

Miss Peggy Berger, speaking to the Appomattox Woman's Club at their monthly meeting told of a European tour plus three weeks spent in building a Methodist church in Reid, Austria. 'Little did we think that we would pay money to dig ditches,' she said, but dig they did, all 24 of the young people, ten of them Virginians, who were part of the Methodist Work Camp program during Miss Berger's junior year at VPI in 1957.

Using colored slides to illustrate her talk, Miss Berger showed their departure from Quebec, London Bridge, the 'OLD Curiosity shop' of Dickens, and views of Holland, the Hague, Brussels Heidelburg, the Cologne Cathedral, Vienna, and urich.

In Reid, Austria after arriving covered with soot from the coal buring, non - airconditioned train, Miss Berger found that living quarters were a part of a former refugee camp. 'Friday was warm shower day', she recalled, since the two cold water spigots at the camp ruled out much bathing. The weekly bath was available in town for 12c. All the young men of the work camp grew beards, she said — an 'outgrowth' of the 'cold water situation.'

Four meals a day were standard fare, she said, and delicious Austrian pastries climaxed hearty offerings of soup, meat, potatoes, rice, and other vegetables.

Wheat straw served as mattresses, she said, and the campers soon learned to jump up and down on their beds before retiring in order to 'flatten out the lumps.' Even so, their hard beds felt good she added, after helping dig a three foot ditch on two sides of the church excavation, plus pouring cement for foundation walls. Five a.m. was rising time, but the campers still found time and energy to organize a 'circus' for the hundred children or so living in the complex of thirty buildings which made up the camp.

What about permanent benefits from the trip? Miss Berger said, 'We made a lot of friends; we saw a part of six countries, and I did learn to dig ditches.'

Teacher Injured In Car Accident

A Richmond teacher traveling west on 460 near Spout Spring about 6 p.m. narrowly escaped serious injury Thursday night, Oct. 31, when she lost control of her car and plunged into a drainage ditch to the right of the highway.

Miss Charlotte Gray, of Richmond, and Montvale, Va., said that she leaned over to adjust the radio dial, and that the car began to swerve out of control. Whether it was a mechanical failure or tire trouble, she was unable to tell.

The car, a Volkswagon, was heavily damaged. Miss Gray escaped with minor cuts and bruises The Rescue Squad answered the call.

Three Fined For "Spotlighting"

Three hunters, including an Appomattox man, were fined in county court Oct. 30 for "spotlighting deer." Curtis D. Ferguson, Appomattox; Calvin Accord, Dunn, N. C.; and Burrell W. Page, Hyattsville, Md., all were charged by game warden Charles Torrence with "attempting to take deer with a flashlight and '22 rifle at night." They were apprehended on October 22.

All three pleaded guilty to the charge, Judge Charles Crawley fined Ferguson $100 and costs; Accord, $100 and costs; and Page, $100 and costs plus a 60 day jail sentence suspended on the condition that their hunting privileges be revoked for two years.

Sabbath, Nov. 2: E. S. Schull of Gaymont, Staunton, Va., coordinator and secretary for Evangelist George Vanderman's "It Is Written" TV program for the Potomac conference was guest speaker at the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Appomattox. "Soul Winning" was the theme of his message and how it must be done according to 2 Timothy 4:2, Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season reprove, rebuke, with all long suffering and doctrine, quoting from 1 Timothy 2:15 "Study the word to show thyself approved of God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed rightly dividing the word of truth".

When we study the word and know what the will of God is for us then we are to share our faith with others, Again Paul admonishes Timothy to be a said winner in 2 Timothy 1:5-7 by calling to rememberance the blessings which are those who have had which are those who have had spiritual training in early childhood. "When I call to remembrance of the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother, Lois, and thy mother, Eunice and I am persuaded that in thee also." Wherefore I put thee to remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee, by putting on my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

"There is no greater work than soul winning" Pastor Schull said— John 10:16 teaches us to search for the lost sheep, "And other sheep I have which is not of this fold, them also I must bring and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold and one shepherd, after Jesus arose from the grave his last message to Christians to the end of time was "Go labor in my vineyard." Feed my lambs, Feed my sheep, and the promise is He will be with us even unto the end of the world". Matt. 28:19,20.

Property Owners Can Help Catch Spotlighters

The recent conviction of three hunters for illegally pursuing deer at night with flashlights and guns brought forth a comment from Appomattox Commonwealth attorney, George Abbitt: "The only way to break it up is through the cooperation of property owners." He augests that anyone noting hunters after dark would telephone the game warden or other law enforcement officer in order to crack down on the practice.

Full Back Offers Help In Hurry

Bill Burke, Varsity full back last year and first string player for the REBELS for two years, offered help in a hurry to get a football picture in the Homecoming edition of the TIMES-VIRGINIAN. All we had was a negative showing players in jerseys, thanks to local photographer Sharon Robertson. Then Bill stepped in with a fast typewriter to identify the players. Thanks Bill and Sharon for help in setting up Page One!
